

Home

Site map

[User
Manuals](#)

[Thorens
Dept.](#)

[Garrard
Gallery](#)

[Thorens
Gallery](#)

[Systems
Gallery](#)

[Lenco
Gallery](#)

Articles and Reviews

[Alignment
FAQ](#)

[Interesting
Vinyl](#)

[Plinth
Builder's
Gallery](#)

Idler Drive

[Cartridge
Gallery](#)

Teres

[What's Under Your
Turntable](#)

DIY Dept

[Reading
List](#)

Links

[Analog
Classifieds](#)

[Analog
Accessories](#)

Misc. Photo

Above photo: A Clearaudio alignment protractor is used to set overhang and offset angle of a Thorens TP16 MKI tonearm with Shure V15VxMR cartridge. This protractor uses the pivot to spindle distance as an integral feature of it's process and relies on a single null point.

The protractor above may not be practical for many as it costs $150 US at the time of this writing.